

To Lazarus Ty'miiri, Sage Supreme of the Kulian Tower of High Knowledge, does Daerian Sunstar give his greetings,

Friend, Lazarus, I received your most recent missive, and I am most intrigued. Many centuries have I spent traveling Abeir-Toril, but never have I dreamed of traveling the Sea of Stars, to another world completely! Your offer to arrange my transport to Kule is most gracious. However, my friend, as you know, I am currently working on a most important project for her majesty, Queen Amlauril of Evermeet. As such, I am going to have to respectfully decline your offer for the time being. Enclosed, as per your request, is a dictionary of Elven words that I have translated into the "Common Tongue". Hopefully, this will aid you in translating the books you mentioned in your last missive.

Sweet Water and Light Laughter, my friend,

Daerian Sunstar
